Board Member Recusal

POLICY: It is the policy of the Maine State Board of Nursing that when a Board member recuses himself/herself from participating in a discussion or vote regarding a matter pending before the Board that the Board member leave the room until the Board has concluded its discussion or vote on the matter.

HISTORY: The purpose of this policy is to reinforce public confidence in the Board's processes and remove any perception that the recused Board member has any participation in or impact upon the Board's discussion and/or vote regarding the particular issue.
