

Current procedure for commission review teams to review and react to charter school requests

When a request is received from a charter school it is directed with supporting documentation to the Review team. A meeting (in person or via phone) is arranged and the Review Team develops a recommendation to present to the full Commission.

Procedure for commission review teams to review and react to charter school submissions (performance indicators, bylaws, etc.)

To be determined