

Asian Longhorned Beetle

Large (over 1" long)

Shiny black with distinct white spots

Long antennae

July - October

May be confused with...

Whitespotted pine sawyer

ALB attacks healthy hardwood trees, preferably maple, elm, birch, willow and horsechestnut.

Where is ALB?

New York, NY

~~x~~ Chicago, IL

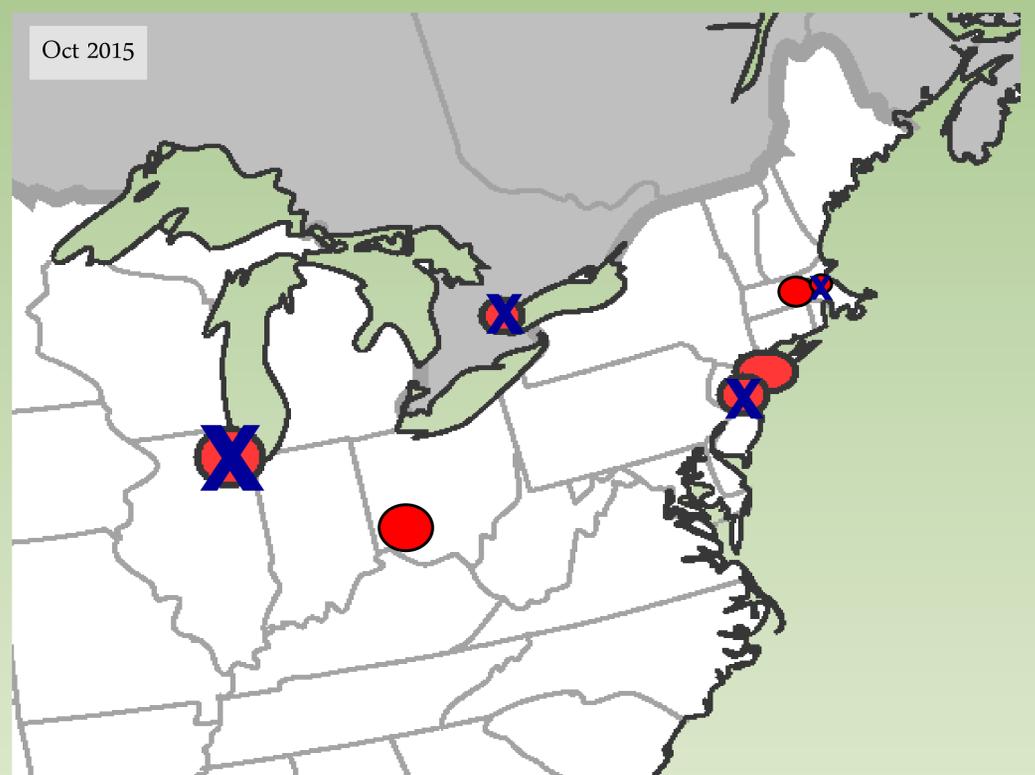

~~x~~ Carteret and Jersey City, NJ

~~x~~ Toronto, ON

Worcester, MA

~~x~~ Boston, MA

Clermont Co., OH

~~x~~ eradicated

Look For:

Exit holes / egg sites

Frass (sawdust)

Adult feeding damage on leaves

Adult feeding damage on twigs

Report

If you think you've seen the Asian longhorned beetle, or the above signs on hardwood trees, please report your findings to:

bugwatchme.agr@maine.gov or call (207) 287-2431

www.maine.gov/alb

