

24.0 SUNLIGHT

---

Structures associated with the proposed Bingham Wind Project are limited to wind turbines; substation; the Operations and Maintenance building; and collector line and transmission line utility poles, conductors, and associated hardware. No portions of the project will block access to direct sunlight for any structures using solar energy through active or passive systems.