

Section 22

Odors

22.0 ODORS

There will be very limited odors during the construction phase of the Canton Mountain Wind Project from mechanized harvesting and construction equipment emissions.

There are no odors associated with the operation of the wind turbines and electrical transmission lines.