Good Morning

I am a lifelong resident of Maine. 64 years and counting. I am firmly opposed to the CMP corridor. Speaking from experience with corporate energy's brainwash, manipulation and deceitful tactics, Maine residents will gain few long term benefits from this project.

Where are the 3500 jobs going to be created and how long will they last? Many of the jobs will come from out of state company,s. CMP lawyers will talk a great line. The power line expansion through my area a few years ago was done by a Texas company.

How many times will rural Maine have to permanently sacrifice it's beauty? Please use common sense and good judgement for our citizens. Thank you John Ludden
