PLEASE DO NOT ADOPT CALIFORNIA'S LAWS. I am not going to disagree that the environment is important. It IS! But Maine and Maine's businesses are not prepared for that economic change. I am a small business owner just trying to start out. If I had to endure all of the upfront costs of switching my trucking over to electric it would sink me, immediately. This is not a good thing for an economy that already struggles. We have the oldest population in the country. We have a rural economy that relies on trucking. For the people of Maine we cannot adopt these laws!!
