

Suicide Assessment Clinician Training Greg A Marley, LCSW

Please return this form to receive your certificate of attendance.

Purpose of this training - Suicide Assessment for Clinicians is designed to prepare a new or seasoned clinicians to understand the risk of suicide in a variety of populations across the lifespan and how to approach and complete an effective suicide risk assessment.

Do you feel the purpose of this training has been achieved?       Yes                       No

Please indicate the extent the objective was met: (circle number)

	Not at All		To a Great Extent
Express a broad understanding of suicide prevalence and occurrence in special at-risk populations.....	2	3	4
Identify high risk mental health disorders and red flags within each diagnostic group.....	2	3	4
Construct the relationship between risk factors and warning signs and how they affect suicide assessment.....	2	3	4
Carry out the elements of a suicide risk assessment interview.....	2	3	4
Understand the rationale behind “Level of Care” decisions and available resources. ....	2	3	4
Examine the rationale of risk management and the need for, and protection from liability. ....	2	3	4

Faculty Teaching Method

Rate Greg on the following characteristics:	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Knowledge of subject .....	2	3	4	4
Responsiveness to the group.....	2	3	4	4
Teaching Methods.....	2	3	4	4
Organization.....	2	3	4	4

Comments you have regarding this training:

---

---

---