INSTRUCTIONS

Length of extension: The extension may be a one-time extension of the original order for a period of up to 12 months.

Reason for request: Explain why an extension of PTP is appropriate.

Line (A) (iii) – If the proposed client has no guardian, write “N/A.”

Line (A) (iv) – Notice information to be provided to the court must be for the proposed client’s spouse, parent, or adult child, or, if none of these relatives is known or can be located, for next of kin or a friend. The applicant should circle the applicable description to specify the relationship to the proposed client of the person to whom the court is being asked to send notice. If the applicant believes that notice to any individual would pose a risk of harm to the proposed client, notice to that individual may not be given, and a notation to that effect should be made in the margin.
