

ELL student growth principle:

*Lower is faster,
Higher is slower.*

This means the lower the student's language proficiency, the faster he/she is expected to progress.

The higher the student's language the slower he/she is expected to progress.