Summary of the activities of the board or commission related to accomplishing its mission in 2024:

The new council chair, Chad Heid, held six virtual meeting during calendar 2024. The primary focus of the meetings during the year was to compile data for the report due to the Legislature in March of 2025. Under Chad s leadership, these subcommittees were formed which worked to identify needs and recommendations: Steering, State of Transit, Research & Policy, Mobility Alternatives, and Equity. The entire council met in February, April, June, August, October, and December. Committees met during the off months and reported back to the council at the scheduled meetings. Work is ongoing on the report due to the Legislature that will include a transit needs assessment and recommendations.
