

Stakeholder Group Meeting 3

Wednesday, August 20, 2008

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

AGENDA

- Focus: Systems Perspectives for Developing Multiple Pathways for Student Success
- Equity for ALL students
 - Equity through Quality, Multiple Settings, and Re-Design of Systems
- 9:00 Welcome and Check-in
Discussion: Task Force Members offer reflections to the presentations from August 13th, and offer opportunities and/or challenges on the basis of their discussions with their colleagues/associations.
- 9:45 New Hampshire –Extended Learning Opportunities – Sue Gendron
- 10:00 Julie Meltzer – Literacy Consultant (waiting for confirmation)
The importance of Adolescent Literacy across content and programs
- 11:00 BREAK
- 11:15 Mathematics – Tad Johnson
- Systems Perspectives for Standards of Excellence
 - Contextual Learning for all types of learners
 - Applied and integrative learning that are relevant and transferable to higher education, careers and life
- 11:45 Career Technical Education/National Skills
- Maine CTE (Mark Powers, waiting to hear from him)
 - Ohio Secondary Workforce Development Technical Content Standards
- 12:30 LUNCH – Cross Cafeteria (give your name at cash register)
- 1:15 Deliberations/Questions/Comments
- 2:00 Discussion:
- Stakeholder John Reiter – Questions to present to group
 - Stakeholder Will Burrow – Survey of Special Education Directors
 - What evidence should be used to determine the awarding of a Maine high school diploma? (credits, standards demonstrated through portfolio, exhibition, senior project, national certification, modules)
 - Should there be any common elements such as state assessments in content areas?
 - Should there be any common expectations such as Algebra for all students?
 - What type of pathways should be provided for students?
- 3:45 Next Steps
- Work plan for September 17th
 - Identify resources needed