

Come learn about the collaboration between Kieve's Kennedy Learning Center and Antioch University New England's Experienced Educators Program

Graduate classes beginning March 20, 2010

Master's program beginning September, 2010

Antioch University New England is partnering with Kieve-Wavus Education, Inc. to offer innovative, experiential graduate education. Earn your Master's of Education degree in the monthly, weekend classes at Kieve's Nobleboro, Maine campus. Experienced Educators' powerful cluster model brings working educators together to explore, create, strategize, and collaborate in professional learning communities and to make a difference for their students, schools, and organizations.

Join us at an information session in order to learn more, and visit us at:
www.antiochne.edu/ed/exed/kieve.cfm.

Wednesday, January 13 at 4:30pm

Kieve's Leadership School, Nobleboro, ME

or

Thursday, January 14 at 3:30pm

Camden-Rockport Elementary School
11 Children's Way, Rockport, ME

Who Should Attend:

All teachers preK-12, and alternative educators, too.

This event includes an overview of the program and a chance to speak with faculty. Please join us for this informative afternoon. We hope to see you there!

You can also get a taste of the program with graduate courses this spring, held at Kieve's Leadership School in Nobleboro:

Building Learning Communities: March 20 - 21

Real World Learning: May 1 - 2

Registration information at: www.antiochne.edu/ed/exed/kieve.cfm

Pursue your passion for learning. Energize your teaching.
Challenge the status quo. Be a force for change.
Take a stand for your beliefs. Advocate for living sustainably.
Explore cutting-edge educational practices. Build professional networks.

Join us. Bring your wisdom, insight and vision.

FMI: 800.552.8380

loram@antiochne.edu / www.antiochne.edu