

1/8/10

Reinventing our Schools: Bringing Hope to All of Our Children

An opportunity to attend a two-hour condensed informational overview session of the Re-Inventing Schools Coalition (RISC) philosophy with Rich DeLorenzo, Co-founder of the non-profit RISC Foundation. Maine Department of Education Commissioner Susan Gendron will provide information regarding the work RISC is doing in Maine.

When: January 25, 2010; 6-8 pm

Who should attend: All stakeholder members from across Maine's Educational System- Legislators, community members, school board members, superintendents, principals, teachers, paraprofessionals and other school staff, curriculum leaders, students, parents, post-secondary faculty, staff, and students

Where: J. Duke Albanese Performing Arts Center
Messalonskee High School
131 Messalonskee High Drive
Oakland, ME 04963

Driving Directions:

http://www.rsu18.org/mshs/administration/driving_directions.html

Fee: No cost

For more information contact Diana Doiron, Maine Department of Education, diana.doiron@maine.gov

To learn more about RISC: <http://www.reinventingschools.org/learning/>