NEW BUSINESS

1. Request for Reconsideration by Senate Democratic Campaign Committee

The Senate Democratic Caucus has requested that the Ethics Commission reconsider its September 29 decision in favor of awarding Senators Paul Davis and Chandler Woodcock matching funds on the basis of radio ads criticizing "Republican Leaders" for not putting bonds on the election ballot. As part of the request, the caucus alleges that the Chair of the Commission has a conflict of interest because of his political activities.

2. Request for Matching Funds (time permitting)

The Senate Republicans have inquired whether Julie O'Brien is entitled to matching funds based on campaign literature in support of Libby Mitchell that voters received on or after October 13.
