Outline of for CLE is entitled, "Crimmigration: Handling The Collision of State and Federal Law When Your Criminal Client Is Not A United States Citizen."

I. Crimmigration-Why it is Complicated and Why We Need to Know It
- A very separate system: immigration courts, rules, detention, and enforcement;
- How Immigration "finds" your client; enforcement priorities;
- Attorneys (on both sides) after Padilla

II. Which Clients Are "Immigrants"?
- Immigration 101-a simple way to look at immigration status;
- How to figure out your client's status;
- Winning the lottery- some people are U.S. citizens and don't know it;

III. Immigration Consequences-A Brief Survey
- Deportation-yes, to that country too….;
- Inadmissbility;
- Loss of current status;
- Loss of future status;
- Bar from asking for relief from deportation;
- The immigration status / immigration consequences match-up

IV. The Hard Part: Maine Criminal Charges meet Immigration's Definitions of……
- A conviction
- An aggravated felony
- A crime involving moral turpitude
- A drug trafficking offense;
- A crime of domestic violence
- A particularly serious crime;
- A significant misdemeanor;

V. Mitigating and Avoiding Immigration consequences;
- You absolutely must know current status and complete prior record;
- Finding our if a Maine conviction will affect your client; you need resources;
- Strategies that may help;
